Columbia Police Make Major Shoplifting Arrests

An off-duty Columbia Police Officer was working the Dillard's at Columbiana Mall when three suspects entered the men's department and concealed a pair of shorts and two shirts on their person and exited the store without paying. The off-duty officer pursued two of the suspects to the parking lot and they fled in a vehicle driven by another suspect. The fourth suspect was stopped by a responding CPD Officer. Officers in the area were able to stop the fleeing vehicle and took the suspects into custody. As Officers and Investigators searched the suspects vehicle, more stolen items were found exceeding $10,000.

Columbia Police have arrested Dreama Denise Miller (DOB: 12/5/1975, Latresha Renee Hughes (DOB: 4/15/1980), Ken Suduan Proctor (DOB: 3/4/1979) and Jennifer Young (DOB: 9/4/1964). Miller, Hughes and Young have been charged with Shoplifting, Receiving Stolen Goods and Conspiracy. Proctor has been charged with Shoplifting.

Miller, Hughes, Proctor and Young are currently being held at the Alvin S. Glenn Detention Center at this time.
