City of Columbia Police Department's Basic Firearms Safety Course

The Columbia Police Department would like to remind the public that it offers a Basic Firearms Safety Course that meets the requirements of the "Law Abiding Citizens Self Defense Act of 1996."

This course satisfies the requirements for a Concealed Weapons Permit and is free of charge. The classroom portion of the course, which involves basic firearms safety and other pertinent information, is also available to persons only interested in firearm safety and not obtaining a Concealed Weapons Permit. The classroom portion is approximately five and a half hours.

For additional information, please call 545-3555 or to register, call 545-3507.
